

Terms & Conditions

All services purchased from YogaBalance will be preceded by the applicant acknowledging, by way of completing a health assessment form, that he/she has no physical limitations preventing him/her from participation. The studio may ask for a GP note maybe required to participate. It is the students responsibility to ensure that he is capable of undergoing a routine of exercises provided by any program which he /she follows or Class which he/she attends. Students accept the risk of injury from performing exercises and are advised to consult their doctor prior to beginning any session. YogaBalance accepts no liability for loss or damage to property of students or for injury to students on the Studio premises or outside the Studio. All students under the age of 18 years must have consent, in written form, from a parent or guardian. The student also agrees to abide by the rules and regulations of the studio and acknowledges that these rules and regulations may change from time to time.

Class Passes/Class Credits

5 class passes and 10 class passes need to be used within 3 months
20 class passes needs to be used within 6 months

Class credits whether £50 or £100 need to be used within 3 months.

Class passes and class credits need to be used by the same individual. They are non-transferable and non refundable. Expired class passes/credits can be 'renewed' with an additional fee of £15, allowing the individual an extra month to use their classes. Class passes/credits cannot be used with further offers, discounts or shared by anyone else. Class passes/credits cannot be used for workshops, courses or special events classes.

Memberships

Memberships are non-transferable and non-refundable. Members who pay monthly or annually are allowed unlimited use of all classes. The membership does not include workshops, courses or special event classes. Membership privileges i.e. discounts/savings are offered to members from time to time by our therapists, and course/workshops providers, and you will be notified of these offers on our website, or by signing up to receive our newsletter. We require 1 month cancellation notice. We are happy to freeze (hold) your membership for 1 solid month. You are only able to freeze one single month once in any given year. Your membership will continue rolling into the following months after the frozen month and charged on its regular date.

Studio Etiquette

Please arrive 5-10mins before the class starts to settle in.

On arrival please remove your shoes. Our studios and facilities remain a shoe free zone.

Please use lockers provided to store valuables to keep studio clutter free

Latecomers may be admitted at the discretion of the management and teacher/workshop leader.

The use of cameras and recording equipment, and mobile phones is strictly forbidden.

For busy classes we recommend booking online or coming 15mins before the class start time. We must have participants full name, and if making a pre-payment, one telephone number or one email.

New Students

New students to YogaBalance will be required to sign a liability waiver. Students are responsible for consulting a GP before undertaking a yoga class if necessary. It is the responsibility of students to inform the teacher of any physical or medical conditions, ongoing or temporary, that may require adaptation of the class prior to each class. To register or purchase from the YogaBalance online booking system, you must be over eighteen years of age. You must ensure that the details provided by you on registration or at any time are correct and complete.
