

Horizontal (FMS) Milling Team Lead

- 3 years minimum set up and operate on Horizontal (FMS) milling equipment.
- 2 years minimum basic leadership and supervision experience.
- Act as a working lead to a team of employees, giving work direction in the following areas; daily tasks and goals, job and machine operation, inspection methods, production requirements and daily result tracking.
- Tracks department metrics for use in improving company's overall performance.
- Plan and prepare work into assigned equipment to meet company objectives.
- Track assigned personnel individual performance to insure company objectives are achieved.
- Act as a Programmer/Set up person/Operator as needed in assigned area.
- Ability to read and interpret travelers, engineering specs, drawings, blueprints and a working knowledge of GD&T.
- Understanding of inspection methods used to inspect parts, and the ability to document inspections on all assigned quality reports.
- Possess an understanding of ISO 9001:2000, AS9100 requirements.
- Able to apply principles and practices of Lean Manufacturing to assigned area.
- Maintain assigned department to company standards of cleanliness, and organization.
- Follows department preventative maintenance schedule as required.
- Is able to understand and adhere to Alliance Machine's Core Values.
- Perform work as apparent or assigned.
- Keep supervisor informed as needed and required.