

- Conducts First Article, In-process and Final Inspections on a variety of parts and assemblies using appropriate inspection equipment and quality documentation.
- Determine appropriate measuring equipment to be used and prepares for production.
- Prepares quality documents per customer specifications and requirements.
- Prepares corrective / preventive actions and SCAR forms to customer requirement as needed.
- Keeps supervisor informed as needed and required.
- Ability to interpret travelers, engineering specs, drawings, blueprints and a working knowledge of GD&T.
- Possess an understanding of ISO 9001:2000, AS9100 requirements.
- Possess a clear understanding of Alliance Machine's core values.
- Keeps assigned work area clean and organized to company standards.

Does work as apparent or assigned.