

A (Material Handler) must possess the ability to perform the following:

- Fills orders and issues material through the use of the Job Traveler, EPICOR operating software and other developed formats.
 - Ability to recognize inventory levels and status and make adjustments through the use of the operating system and other developed formats.
 - Sets up and operates material saw to the requirements provided on the Job Traveler, supervision or team leads.
 - Is able to perform the tasks of shipping and receiving product.
 - Works well with both internal and external customers such as, delivery and purchasing personnel.
 - Keeps supervisor informed as needed and required.
 - Ability to interpret travelers, engineering specs, drawings, blueprints and a working knowledge of GD&T.
 - Possess an understanding of ISO 9001:2000, AS9100 requirements.
 - Possess a clear understanding of Alliance Machine's core values.
 - Keeps work area clean and organized to company standards.
- Does work as apparent or assigned.