

2015 Farmers Market Agreement

Hours of Operation will be Saturday mornings from 8:00am to noon each week beginning May 9th and ending September 12th.

Vendors must be in place, ready to open at least 10 minutes prior to opening of the Market. Market opens promptly at 8am.

Booth space assignment will be on a first come, first serve basis each week.

Each Vendor is solely responsible for his or her own tables, displays, change, bags, weather and sun protection devices, produce scales, etc.

The Danville Farmers' Market may not be used as an outlet for the sale of flea market type items. Absolutely NO RE-SALE ITEMS will be permitted. Certain hand crafted items will be permitted, with the approval of the Danville Chamber of Commerce prior to sale at Market. Please contact the Chamber office at 745-0670, to have your handcrafted items approved. The Danville Chamber and/or the Market Master reserves the right to revoke approval of sale items if they do not meet the standards set forth in this document and approval agreement.

All vendor booth and sale item approvals or denials are at the sole discretion of the Danville Chamber of Commerce.

If a vendor is suspected of "carrying" produce to market, grown by or purchased from another farmer, a "Farm Visit" will be arranged by the Market Master.

All Vendors are responsible for and shall comply with all applicable state and county laws, regulations and ordinances pertaining to their products, including but not limited to Health Department permits and sales tax collection.

Vendors shall maintain general liability insurance for protection against claims, injuries and damages. Proof of liability insurance must be submitted to the Danville Chamber of Commerce with this signed agreement.

Vendors must agree to hold harmless the Danville Chamber of Commerce and the Town of Danville, as well as its agents, officers, members and employees from any and all liability, loss or damage, including, but not limited to; bodily and personal injuries, injuries resulting in death, property damage and all other claims, actions and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, which may occur as a result of Vendor's participation in the Market.

Market Master reserves the right to make judgment calls based on activity deemed unsafe or unlike that of an upstanding member of the Danville Chamber of Commerce Farmers' Market. Vendors who fail to comply with the rules set forth in this document may be asked to change their actions or leave the Market.

Vendors paying for a full season will be able to sell at:

The Geranium Festival - May 9th, no additional fee

Mayberry in the Midwest Festival - May 15th, 16th & 17th, Saturday as part of your season

Friday and Sunday for an additional $75 (separate application needed)

Danville Tri-Kappa Fair on the Square – September 12th & 13th, for an additional $25 (must be present both days)

Additional fees will be collected at a later date, as checks are made payable to someone other than Danville Chamber.
