

Channel Surfing - 1.66 miles Typical Ride Time: 20 minutes

10 Ring - .83 miles Typical Ride Time: 20 minutes

Crossover - .27 miles Typical Ride Time 5 minutes

Difficulty Level - Channel Surfing - Beginner/Novice

10 Ring - Beginner/Novice with some intermediate and difficult sections

Crossover - Beginner/Novice

Directions: To get to the trail head of Channel Surfing, 10 Ring and Crossover trails begin on the north side of Scott's Bottom Road after crossing the river bridge. They can be easily accessed from Parking A next to the Outdoor Archery Range. Channel Surfing trail heads northwest along the river bottom and then turns due east to hook up with the 10 Ring Trail. The 10 Ring Trail also begins on the north side of the Scott's Bottom Road after crossing the river bridge. The trail turns east uphill and then turns north and then back west to connect up with the Channel Surfing Trail. Crossover Trail connects to the two east and west legs of the Channel Surfing Trail approximately 1/2 mile from the trail head.

GPS Coordinates: N. 41° 29'792" W: 109° 26'269"

Trail Description: On Channel Surfing and Crossover the trail parallels the Green River bottom along an easy trail. Ground can be soft and sandy in the spring and fall and will in some areas become a bit more packed. This is typical river bottom ground with grasses, sage brush, and cottonwood trees closer to the river. Portions of the trail are overflow channel for the river which may become impassable with spring runoff and high water during the spring. Crucial junctions to be aware of are the intersections with The Crossover Trail about 1/2 mile from the trail head and the 10 Ring Trail on the northeast side of the trail about 1 mile from the trail head.

10 Ring trail winds its way along the foot of the bluffs above the Channel Surfing Trail with some intermediate trail sections and several difficult drops, those can be avoided if you choose. Crucial junction to be aware of is where the trail crosses Channel Surfing approximately 1 mile from the the main trail head. Key feature to this trail are the drops and wooden crossing which add a unique challenge to this twisting trail. Both trails offer great views of the river, the City of Green River and surrounding bluffs. This area has numerous wildlife viewing opportunities such as deer, moose, pronghorns, beaver, muskrat, raptors and fish.

Draino - 1.05 miles Typical Ride Time: 20 minutes

Difficulty Level - Intermediate - some technical terrain and climbing

Directions: To get to the trail head from Parking Lot B, (N 41° 29.604', W109° 25.761'), start on the Scott's Bottom Road and turn right through a wash in front of you and follow a two track road south around the hill, towards the river, working your way southeast to the canyon. Drop here through the next ravine following the right fork up the canyon. Your next drop will be in the wash where the trail meets Fast Exit coming down. Make a left turn and proceed up the wash as it makes its way up. The trail will take the obvious forks in the wash and the trail stays in the wash until climbing out and passing the upper trail head for NoMoJo Trail on the right.

GPS Coordinates: N 41° 29.577' W 109° 25.497'

Trail Description: This trail can be ridden two ways. Use it as the beginning of your ride at Parking Lot B as described above. Draino is the primary gateway to the Wilkins Peak Trail System. The wash ride varies in surface from shale, sand or rock often depending upon previous rain storms. Staying on Draino after the NoMoJo junction continue straight ahead. The trail climbs steeply for another 1/4 mile until the maximum elevation of Draino has been achieved. Once out of the wash canyon you'll meander east and south across the plateau where the trail crosses Forest Service Road 171, which brings you to the junctions of Brent & Mike's Trail and Pick Your Poison. If you have already ridden the trails that connect Pick Your Poison with Brent & Mike's then you're ready to head back down.

Here is the second way; use Draino for an incredible downhill test of your suspension and be prepared to giggle like a little girl when you get out of the canyon. Draino is a workout climbing up but an amazing rush coming down, turning ledges you climbed up into launching pads and high banked turns flying down.

NoMoJo Trail - 2.46 miles Typical Ride Time: 20 minutes

Difficulty Level - Intermediate - some technical terrain and climbing

Directions: This trail starts at Draino and ends at Pick Your Poison.

GPS Coordinates: Starting - N 41° 29.866' W 109° 24.985'

Trail Description: The first .40 miles of this trail have several spots of exposure and some technical sections. If this kind of riding is not your cup of tea do not be discouraged. The remainder of the trail is smooth with amazing views of the Green River and some beautiful deep canyons. This is a very flat trail with only 170 feet of elevation gain.

After negotiating the technical section of this trail you will cross the Fast Exit Trail at .44 miles. Stay straight ahead, at .73 miles stop and enjoy the views of the Green River before starting up the next canyon. Follow the trail into two canyons until crossing a two track dirt road at mile 2.10 miles. You will then come to a wash crossing that will challenge most intermediates. The trail then starts ascending, crossing Forest Service Road 171 at 2.40 miles, this is the end of the trail and junction to Pick Your Poison.

GPS Coordinates: Ending - N 41° 29.420' W 109° 24.907'

Pick Your Poison - 4.54 miles Ride Time: 1 hour

Difficulty Level - Advanced with some Intermediate sections

Directions: The trail begins at Parking Lot C.

Trail Description: This trail offers options for both intermediate and advanced riders. Along this trail there are many options that allow more advanced riders to challenge themselves but still allows others to take a more mellow route. If you want to take the more difficult options follow the black markers.

Blue will be the easier route. This trail does have some sustained climbs that could prove difficult for beginners but would be a good challenge for intermediates. Total elevation gain for this trail is 700 feet.

Trail description starts from Brent and Mikes and ends at Cruiser.

From Brent and Mikes junction and just past the first rock obstacle turn left at the junction with Draino at .05 miles. At .31 miles will be the junction with Quickdraw, stay to the right and follow the trail to the junction with NOMOJO at mile 1.09. You will cross two roads and enjoy the descent to the wash crossing at mile 1.93. The trail now starts climbing for the next .3 miles with numerous bridge crossings and some challenging switchbacks towards the top. At mile 3.2 stop and take a break and enjoy the views looking to the southeast toward Flaming Gorge. The trails mellow out for a while until the junction with Pansy at mile 3.5. Pansy is an easy option and is recommended for everyone except advanced riders. Take a left here and see if you can clean the waterfall. Follow the Pick Your Poison signs as Pansy joins it for a few short sections. There are numerous bridges and technical sections in this area. At mile 3.94 the Pansy trails heads left, stay right to ride some more tight switchbacks and technical sections. Finally at mile 4.22 descend into the wash with a quick climb and enjoy some nice mellow rollers before the end of the trail at the junction with Cruiser at mile 4.41.

Pansy - .49 miles Typical Ride Time: 15 minutes

Difficulty Level - Beginner

Pansy is part of Pick Your Poison trail. It provides less technical option for riders wishing to avoid a more difficult waterfall climb on Pick Your Poison. It also provides an easier climb coming from Brent and Mikes as you head back on Pick Your Poison to its trail head.

Brent & Mike's Trail - 5.67 Miles

Difficulty Level - Easy to moderate challenging

Directions: The trail begins at Parking Lot C.

GPS Coordinates: N41° 29.767' W109° 26.307'

Trail Description: This trail, begins as a two track with a long gradual uphill climb the first 2 miles then flattens out with a very slight vertical gain the remainder of the ride. This is a perfect out and back ride. At approximately the 3 mile point you will come to an intersection, go to the left of the fork and it will take you to a great viewpoint. The right fork takes you to the more challenging down hills, blasting through cedars, rolling over rock slabs, small drops and a thrill ride down a wash, all of which will bring you back to the start point.

Intersections: 2.1 mile - MacDaddy

3 mile - left fork to Lookout

3.6 mile - Pick Your Poison

4.8 mile - Uncle Rico

5.4 mile - Quick Draw

TNT- 1.40 Miles Typical Ride Time: 30 minutes

Difficulty Level - Difficult

Directions: There are two access points off of Brent & Mike's Trail.

GPS Coordinates: N41° 29.991' W109° 23.784'

Trail Description: If it's a fast, fun, furious, free-ride to the bottom with tight turns and steepes that you're after or a free-flowing uphill to fulfill your fitness fix, either way your heart will be pumpin' on TNT. With two access trails to/from Quickdraw and multiple side trails for an easier ride up or down, this trail system offers freedom and flexibility for the free-rider in all of us.

Mac Daddy - .37 Miles Typical Ride Time: 10 minutes

Difficulty Level - Intermediate

Directions: Mac Daddy is a connector trail linking Brent and Mikes with Quickdraw. To access this trail for a fast downhill run, ride up Brent and Mikes until you see the junction sign for Mac Daddy.

GPS Coordinates: N41° 29.961' W109° 23.684'

Trail Description: This is a fast, side hill, roller coaster trail that can be linked to Quickdraw for an even more extended downhill. If a person chooses to climb Quickdraw, Mac Daddy will link into Brent and Mikes. Mac Daddy allows the rider to custom design the ride providing loop access to several trails within the Wilkins Peak Trail system.

Quickdraw - 1.15 Miles - Typical Ride Time 30 - 40 minutes

Difficulty Level - Intermediate:

Directions: From the main trail head follow Pick Your Poison for 1/4 of a mile to where Quickdraw branches off to the left.

Trail Description: Quickdraw is an intermediate trail that climbs up and over the ridge before connecting to Brent & Mike's Trail. Cruiser Trail is also accessed off of Quickdraw Trail. The majority of the trail is packed single track with a few small rock gardens. Quickdraw makes a sustained climb up the ridge with a few tight switchbacks before descending the other side and connecting to Brent & Mike's Trail.

Cruiser - 2.19 Miles - (1.32 one way) - Typical Ride Time: 20 - 30 minutes

Difficulty Level - Beginner

Directions: To get to the trail head follow Pick Your Poison from the trail head to Quickdraw Trail, Cruiser Trail splits to the right off of Quickdraw after crossing the wash.

GPS Coordinates: N41° 29.795' W109° 24.468'

Trail Description: Cruiser Trails is a beginner trail with a few intermediate technical spots that are easily walked over or around. The trail follows the base of the hillside and has no long sustained climbs and little net elevation gain. Cruiser can be ridden as an out and back ride, or connected with other trails to make longer or shorter loops.

Uncle Rico's Trail - .42 miles Typical Ride Time: 15 minutes

Difficulty Level - Difficult

Directions: The trail starts off of Brent & Mike's Trail, towards the end.

Trail Description: Uncle Rico's is designed to be a one-way loop off of Brent & Mike's Trail. The trail heads south down a wash. The first section is a fast downhill with ladder bridges and banked turns followed by a short but very difficult climb. There are several switchbacks and some tricky sections that make the trail a challenge. As you get back to the top of the trail you cross over Brent & Mike's and loop back around to the start of the trail.

Fast Exit - .57 miles Typical Ride Time: 15 minutes

Difficulty Level -Intermediate

Directions: Intersection of Draino and Fast Exit

GPS Coordinates: Top Intersection of Draino & Fast Exit: N41° 29.795' W109° 24.468'

Bottom (wash) where Fast Exit crosses Draino: N41° 29.632' W109° 25.365'

Trail Description: The name of the trail says it all. This is the fast way to get back to the parking area. From the top intersection of Draino, cruise along the ridge line for 28 miles before hanging a right. Travel .34 miles, cross NOMOJO and continue straight down the hill where the trail becomes steeper. Plan on hanging onto your brakes for a short, super steep, rutted section before crossing the wash and the connection to Draino.

Don't Chute -1.22 miles Typical Ride Time 15 minutes

Difficulty Level – Intermediate climbing, off-camber and minimal exposure

Don't Chute: This trail starts at Parking Lot B. Start on the Scott's Bottom Road and turn right through the wash and follow 2-track to the left of the buck rail fence. Proceed along the base of the ridge on the 2-track, which it will turn in singletrack once you cross another 2-track. The singletrack will traverse up to a saddle in the ridge and at that point you will be on 2-track again for just long enough to spot the rock cairn on the right. Follow this singletrack around until it meets up with Draino & NOMOJO.

Trail Description: This trail is an alternate route up if Draino becomes flushed. That's not to say that it's not a great warm up for getting to the upper trails. You start out on 2-track for about 0.2 miles, turning to singletrack at this point you begin a steady climb up to the saddle in the ridge. From there on out you'll remain at that level, weaving in and out of several drainage formations with occasional sections of narrow singletrack, exposure and off-camber pedaling. At 1.2 miles you'll intersect Draino and NOMOJO
