

Designation of Beneficiary National Electrical Annuity Plan

NOTE: If you do not designate a beneficiary, your death benefits will be paid in the following order.

- 1. To your spouse, or if none;
- 2. To your children in equal shares, or if none;
- 3. To your parents in equal shares, or if none;
- 4. To your estate.

If above sequence is acceptable to you, do not complete or return this form.

A PARTICIPANT INFORMATION	A COLOR DE LA COLO
Participant SSN Participant Date of Birth	☐ Single
	☐ Married ☐ Divorced
Participant Name (first, middle, last)
Participant Signature
Address Line 1
Address Line 2 (If Needed)
City State Zip
B BENEFICIARY INFORMATION
If you are married and designate that your spouse will receive less than 100% of your accounts of a patery	unt balance, then your spouse must consent by completing Section C in the presence of a notary.
Beneficiary 1
SSN Date of Birth / / / F	Percentage of Account 0%
Name(Please Print): Relationship to participal	nt:
Beneficiary 2
SSN Date of Birth / / /	Percentage of Account %
Name(Please Print): Relationship to participationship to participationsh	an t :
Teamor (essertion)
C SPOUSE CONSENT (Required only if spouse is not the sole primary be
I am the legal spouse of the above named participant in the National Electrical Annuity Plan beneficiary designations above and understand that my share will be%. My spouse designations above, during the time we are married to one another, without my consent on a state of the state o	may not change the beneficiary
Spouse's Name (Please Print)
Spouse's Signature
County of:

State of:
State of:Sworn and subscribed to before me thisday of, 20	(Seał, Stamp, or Certificate Required)

