Hi,
We are glad you're here.

ROAM

MAKE THIS LIFE
A WONDERFUL ADVENTURE

Welcome to ROAM

We hope you've had a restful trip and are ready to explore and experience our wonderful location. Our co-living journey is one that excites and energizes us every day.

With your help, Roam seeks to build a community of global citizens interested in exploration and experience. We think that co-living, learning, and helping others are great ways to increase our connections and deepen our mutual understandings. We know you're here to build and contribute with everyone around you, and for that we thank you.

Bali is a magical place that can be as far from or as close to the larger world as you like.

Everyone has something to share and something to teach.
We embrace all Roamers with this attitude. To foster this spirit and aid your journey, we have put this guest directory together for your convenience. Here you can and useful resources about Roam Bali as well as our House Rules that help all of us contribute to a positive co-living experience.

If you have additional questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to us.
Welcome home!

With much love,

Team Roam Bali

About The Space

Rooms.

Your room is your private sanctuary - please enjoy it. If you need assistance or have any questions, please check with our front desk staff or our community ambassador. We are all happy to help!

Please turn off your A\C when you leave your room.

If you leave your key behind, please let our front desk know. Should you and your key part ways, the charge for a replacement is $15 US.

Wi-Fi Info.

Connect with the world and your community. Wifi is complimentary and available throughout the entire property.

Network name: Roam.
Password: Kindly ask our front desk staff or community ambassador to provide the most up to date password.

Housekeeping.

Rooms are cleaned once a week and this goes for towel and linen change as well. (arrangements can be made to change your linens more often, please ask our front desk staff for this)

If you check in on a Saturday, housekeeping will clean your room every Saturday, every week. If you'd rather a different scheduled day, please let our front desk staff know your preferred day and time of the week. If your trash becomes full, please leave the bin outside of your door to be changed and replaced for you.

Communal Kitchen.

Eat. Share. Connect.

"People who love to eat are always the best people." – Julia Child

Our kitchen gathers the community together and has been a pivotal part of the experience here at Roam.

FOOD EVENTS

BBQ's, sushi nights, Indonesian cooking, champagne brunches, potlucks, chocolate-making and Italian nights are just a few examples of what is happening in our kitchen on a weekly basis. Sundays are great for brunch, while dinners are usually hosted on Wednesday or Thursday evenings - everyone is welcome.

YOUR OWN KITCHEN SPACE

You are assigned a private space with a name label to store your food, both dried goods and fridge space. Our community ambassador will show you your designated space and you can personalize it however you'd like.

PLEASE KEEP IT CLEAN

The kitchen is cleaned throughout the day, but we ask for you to be mindful of other members and tidy what you leave behind, as well as return anything you borrow, like cups and mugs or cutlery.

COMMUNAL FOOD

We have communal items which are provided to you at no cost. All of your basic cooking necessities like drinking water, cooking oils and spices, tea, coffee, sugar, etc. as well as perishable items like eggs, bread, milk and condiments. Look out for the "Communal Food" labels, you are welcome to anything located outside of shelves with member names assigned.

Laundry Facilities.

We have laundry facilities available for you to use. In addition, we have a local laundry service we recommend which is located 3 minutes walking distance from Roam Bali. (Please refer to the map provided and "Partners" section of this guide).

- Please remove items in a timely fashion to respect our other members who would like to use the facilities.
- Please utilize the drying racks. We ask that our members do not hang clothes from the railings on the second floor.
- Clean bath and pool towels, bathmats and face cloths are available in the laundry room for your use.
- Please utilize the laundry basket outside of the laundry room for used towels and replace at your discretion.

Pool.

Splash. Float. Play

While we won't make you wait 30 minutes after a meal before enjoying the pool, we do ask that you use caution and good judgment. There is no lifeguard for the pool and you swim at your own risk.

Co-working Space.

Focus. Create. Collaborate.

The co-working space is located on the second floor and it is available exclusively for our members - you are welcome to use it at anytime, day or night.

We ask that you keep the member password for members only, guests are free to use our "guest wifi" and these keeps speeds exceptional for our community.

Cafe.

Eat. Drink. Collaborate

You are welcome to spend time in our cafe as well as eat, drink, and utilize that area as if it were your own. As a note, the cafe is also open to outside guests and visitors.

Rooftop Yoga Deck.

Namaste

More than just a yoga deck, this collaborative space hosts movie nights, talks, working sessions, fitness boot-camps, salsa dancing, capoeira and more.

We offer regular yoga classes on the deck. These classes are not included in the price of your stay and vary by teacher and class type. Please check the chalkboard schedule located in front of the yoga entrance, as well as the community calendar in the kitchen for times and info.

Roam Member information

Welcome to the 'Roamily'

Roam Terminology

Roamer | A person filled with wander-lust, currently exploring the world and co-living for the first time.

Roamie | An individual who is living or has lived at Roam, a term of endearment for your fellow members, stemming from the words "Roommate + Homie or friend".

Roamily | A term used to describe the family like community that is Roam.

Community Connect.

Grow. Learn. Share

You are now a lifetime member of the Roam community, online. Our Facebook group is the best way to get familiar with the community and collaboratively communicate with current members! This is where we organize group adventures, activities and update what is happening, in real time.

Members Lounge.

Read. Lounge. Connect

The member lounge is located behind the yoga deck. It is a space where people connect, read, work, play games and just hang out!``

Roam Membership Card.

Roam free through the community of UBUD and beyond. This card gives you access to special discounts and perks with our community partners. All you need to do is bring it along and watch the magic happen, enjoy!
(Our partners are listed in the "Welcome to Bali" guide section).

Our staff.

Our amazing staff members are an extension of the Roam family, please treat them as you would your friends and family. We aim to create an integrated experience for everyone involved in this co-living space. Available 24 hours daily to answer questions, provide guidance, or improve your experience. We are happy to help answer questions about guest services, directions, reservations, appointments, tours, rentals, etc.

Tipping in not expected but is kindly welcomed - 20% is fair and recommended.*

Noise & Parties.

In a Roam community, everyone has different levels of tolerance and patience.
Those levels probably change on a daily basis -- some days you feel like leaping out of bed and embracing your community, and some days you want to lounge around and await the day. We ask for you to be respectful and considerate of your community members and our surrounding local neighbors.

Quiet hours are between 11 pm - 7 am.

FAQ

Our address is: Jalan Raya Penestanan
Kelod, Ubud, Kec. Gianyar, Bali
(behind Alchemy restaurant)
Phone:(0361) 4792884

Visa.

Visa extension

You are granted up to 30 days free to stay in Indonesia.

If you plan to extend your trip in Bali, you will need to extend your visa and can do so for a maximum of 60 days. In order to extend for this period, a "Visa on arrival document" must be purchased for $35 US dollars at the airport.

If for some reason you didn't plan for this, you are required to leave the country and can purchase extension upon re-entry into the country.

We have recommended visa agents for you to work with and our front desk staff or community ambassador will be happy to assist you with this.

Overstay Penalty.

The daily penalty for overstaying in Indonesia is IDR 300,000 (AUD$30). Overstaying for more than 60 days is punishable by law with a maximum sentence of 5 years.

SIM Cards.

Local Phone

The nearest place to get a SIM card is Bintang Supermarket. It is 5 minutes by bike from the hotel, our front desk staff will also be happy to assist you. Having a data package on your phone is ideal and will give you access to the internet and a connection for local calls. (Bali has 4G available). Please bring a valid Identity card to get a local number and your phone must be unlocked to obtain data and phone.

Helpful tip: If your phone is not unlocked you can purchase a local phone inexpensively or pay a local dealer to unlock your phone for about $85 US.

Getting Around.

SCOOTERS

Renting a scooter is the most popular choice for transportation. If you feel comfortable trying it out, it will give you a lot of freedom to travel the island and around town. If you are curious, our front desk can happily arrange a scooter rental for you.

Prices change according to season
Expect to pay anywhere between $55-$60 US monthly or $4.00 daily.

Helpful tip: If you negotiate a daily price for your rental, it will remain at the daily rate for the entirety of your rental period. It is advisable to rent at the monthly price if you plan to have the scooter for more than 12 days.

TAXI'S.

Readily available, located just outside of the "Roam" entrance. You'll become familiar with "Transport?! or Taxi!? call outs from far and near.

When it rains, it pours - seriously.

For your convenience, we have rain ponchos available for you to borrow from the front desk.

Walking.

Jalan Jalan

High temperatures, unpredictable sidewalks and busy traffic can scare even the most seasoned traveller from exploring by foot. The neighborhood we are located is quite walk friendly and easy to explore. If you plan to walk please use our map to plan your journey or chat with our front desk staff, members and or community ambassador.

INTUITIVE FLOW

Intuitive flow is like a bird's nest nestled in the jungle. Not accessible by car or motorbike but the nearest yoga studio to Roam. 5 minutes by foot, schedule is available online or at the front desk

YOGA BARN

Yoga Barn is like Ubud's "University of Yoga". The epitome of eat, pray love, you must do you yoga here at least once. Located in the centre of UBUD, 15 minutes by motorbike. Schedule is available online or at the front desk.

Gym.

There are 3 options we recommend in UBUD, please refer to the map for location details.

Bisma 8: Our partners at Bisma 8 have a small and beautiful boutique gym, which our members are welcome to use. (TV + bluetooth sound system + a\c)
Drop in rate: 100k

UBUD Fitness: The most popular gym in UBUD, standard size, standard equipment, full facilities and 3 floors. (no a\c + music)
Drop in rate: 60k

The Mansion: Closest proximity wise, small but equipped with brand new equipment and members love the treadmill. (TV's + a\c + bluetooth sound system)
Drop in rate: 60k
Note: you use the pools here to cool off after a workout for an extra 40k.

Massage Services.

Bali offers some of the most renowned and unique treatments in the world. Sacred body wraps, four-handed massages and relaxing traditional Balinese massage with handmade organic oils... that's just the beginning.

In-suite massage is available for your convenience. Please inquire with our staff to arrange this for you.

If you'd like to venture out for a massage, we've marked our recommendations on the map and our staff can assist with arrangements.

Emergency Numbers.

The main emergency number is 112.
If you have an international sim card, dial the country (+62) and area code (361) before dialing 112 -> +62361112

Ngurah Rai Airport
+62 361 9351011

Our staff can assist you for any local phone calls.

Eat.

Makan

What is a Warung?
The term 'Warung' historically meant a small family-owned business or a casual shop. Today, the term has slightly shifed, especially among expats and foreign visitors, to refer more specifically to a modest Indonesian restaurant. Ubud is known for its support and commitment to local growers who farm organically without the use of harmful pesticides and fertilizers. Penestanan has some of the best organic restaurants in Ubud.

We've curated a list of places our members and locals love to eat.
Enjoy please

Please see the Map provided for locations.

Delivery.

Most restaurants and some small grocery stores deliver. Please see our curated list of menus and markets that deliver. (located in the kitchen)

GOJEK

Our members choose GOJEK for food delivery and shopping. It's reliable and fast and the app is intuitive and user friendly. Just search your app store for "Gojek" once you have a local data plan and the rest is history.

Usually costs Rp. 20,000 for local delivery.

Eat

Western meets Indonesia.

COPPER KITCHEN & BAR

If Cinderella came to Bali, this would where she left her glass slipper. An enchanting atmosphere with white linens, romantic lighting and jungle views for days. Oh, and the food is amazing too - gourmet fare served at casual prices.
Members recommend the "Sea Bream" or Pork belly (also have a full veggie menu) The best 'Old Fashioned' in Bali.

CLEAR CAFÉ

One of the talked about restaurants in UBUD and from afar, vegetarians, vegans and meat eaters alike fall in love with with the food here and sometimes with each other.
Try the Nasi Campur, Dragon bowls, Curry or Sunshine Tuna and don't miss the coconut ice cream, it's made on the daily.

NAUGHTY NURI'S WARUNG + GRILL

The strongest Martini in Bali, hands down, legendary. Known for their BBQ cuisine, try the spare ribs and prepare to drool all over your bib...

YELLOW FLOWER CAFE

An Aussie met a Balinese man and fell in love - then came Yellow Flower Cafe. You can expect amazing fusion between these two cultures. Our recommendation? Everything... the most talked about: Balinese pancakes, Island bowls, Nasi Campur, Tapas for two and the smoothies

NOMAS

They call it "Dude food"... but girls like it too. We know they have the best poutine in Ubud, you can expect nachos, good music, and cold beer. Members like it because they have a TV that plays sports sometimes...
We love Nomas.

FAIR WARUNG BALE

Fair Future Foundation
Really good food for a really good reason. 1 meal = 2 medical bills paid for underprivileged youth in need of medical care.
The atmosphere is quirky, fun and inviting - the staff here will feel like family. One of the most unique places to eat and spend an evening in UBUD.

ELEMENT

5 minutes away, members talk about the burger, it must be good... we recommend the burger.

Breakfast and Brunch.

FOLK

Authentic cultured sourdough bread, baked on the daily and espresso that will have you questioning all of the coffee you thought was good coffee before it. Eggs on toast about 26 different ways, avocado included.
Rumour has it, they serve cronuts...

SENIMAN COFFEE

Coffee + Liquor
Using roasted beans from more than 5 different parts of Indonesia and the cold brew process, Seniman is a great chill out spot to enjoy single-origin coffee and brunch. These guys know coffee and music - it's where all of the cool people hang out...

CASA LUNA

Sunday mornings, fresh doughnuts. If you like doughnuts, eat doughnuts here.

ELEPHANT CAFE

The best smoothies, the best brunch, the best view.

Indonesian Cuisine.

PETANI

Gourmet creations from around the archipelago. Get up close and personal with authentic Sambal (spicy Indonesian salsa) and Satay and then try the chef's signature crispy duck.

BEBEK BENGIL

Ubud's renowned crispy duck dish and other traditional Balinese food. Enough said, it is renowned - we can't mess with it.

GRATITUDE CAFE

5 minutes away from your Roam away from home, this is where you will find local locals eating local favourites. If you're wondering what our staff have in their lunch bags, it's Gratitude Cafe and it's delicious.

Vegetarian / Vegan.

SAGE

Modern vegetarian that won't leave you with a case of the hungries. The veggie burger has a reputation here in UBUD... find out for yourself and then try the chocolate cake, seriously.

SEEDS OF LIFE

Seeds of life is the heart and soul of raw vegan food. Known for their mile long tea collection and fresh brewed kombucha... we were torn between recommending the chocolate crepes for brunch or the mexican lasagna or the banana cake or the....

Unique Cuisine.

LOCAVORE

Imagination introduced local ingredients to a magical wizard and created one of the most amazing food experiences of our generation.

This is serious business... Listed on #96 in the top 100 Restaurants in the world, the ingredient-driven menu highlights contemporary European cuisine created with exotic fresh picks. Reservations recommended, don't miss this experience if you can help it.

MOKSA

Farm to table in the truest sense. A plant based restaurant that sits on it's own permaculture garden. Expect organic, community driven, inspired food. The verdict of everyone who goes here - AMAZING and experience you won't have anywhere else.

Japanese.

KAGEMUSHA

A garden restaurant with an extensive menu of Japanese comfort food. Known for the best chicken teriyaki in Ubud... Irasshaimase!

WARUNG ALAMI

Next door to ROAM, they prepare their meals in the traditional Japanese country style - a mini buffet of home cooked Japanese dishes.

TORO SUSHI

If you want sushi, this is the place to eat it in UBUD.

Adventure

Hit The Beach.

LEMBONGAN

3 hours travel time fast boat and taxi

Mellow and removed from the hassle of South Bali. Its beauty includes seaweed farms, mangrove forests and tranquil beaches. Totally worth checking out if you want the beach experience and to relax while being connected at the same time. While you're at it checkout Nusa Ceningan and Nusa Penida.

THE GILLI ISLANDS

3 hours travel time fast boat and taxi

GILLI T

T stands for 'Trawangan,' and this is the largest out of the three Gilis. Discovered only 30 years ago, the island is now known as a hippie party paradise destination.

What to expect:

Bonfires and full moon parties.

GILLI AIR

Air is the most populated island out of all the Gilis. It will give you a grassroots atmosphere with a mix of locals leading their everyday lives, like fisherman and coconut farmers.

What to expect:

Horse drawn carriages, renowned scuba diving and a very laid back atmostphere.

GILLI MENO

Tranquil little Gili Meno is for those who want to escape the hustle and bustle of the outside world. Popular with 'Honey-mooners' and couples. There are no cars or motorbikes on the island, expect a very slow pace of life here.

What to expect:

Diving sites, bird sanctuary, salt lake and NO wifi - yes you read that correctly.

ULUWATU

2 hours by scooter

Uluwatu is home to both the cliff-hanging temple which has stood still since 11th century and world-renowned surf resorts. The beaches are beautiful and it has accommodation for every budget. Pack your Kindle, sunscreen, and surf boards and hit the "Single Fin party" on a Sunday night.

PADANG PADANG

A secret beach between Bingin Island and Uluwatu. We recommend floating around on a surfboard or joining a bonfire of new friends for the epic sunset here.

SEMINYAK

1 hour by car or scooter

Sip on martinis and watch the sunset from a posh beach club, do some shopping and if you're looking for nightlife - this is the place to experience it in Bali.

SANUR

30 minutes by scooter

Paddle boarding, yoga on the beach and reef surfing along the Sanur coastline. Cool, calm and relaxed with clear waters - 'Ripcurl' surf school is located here and if you have been thinking about lessons, this is the place to do it.

CANGGU

45-60 min by scooter

If you love surfing, Batu Bolong beach has been rumoured to have some of the best surf in Bali.

Canggu is a young and vibrant community with a mix of expats and locals. You can expect to find a laid back atmosphere during the day which contrasts the lively nightlife.

Local organic food is some of the best in Bali and if you need to get some work done, they've got some beautiful co-working spaces scattered around town.

If you're interested in more places to see, outside of UBUD, including standard pricing for tours - We've compiled a list of recommended tours, it's available for you at the front desk.

Please kindly ask for a printed copy.

Local in UBUD.

UBUD MARKET

The famous early morning market where you can shop and bargain with locals - ask our staff if you can tag along or go at it alone and enjoy!

BIRD INVASION

At 5-6pm everyday, up to 20,000 herons make themselves at home in trees of Petulu village.

Look for the small wooden house in the middle of the rice field that offers seats for visitors and locals alike.

TJAMPUHAN RIDGE WALK

This walk will take you through rice fields, beautifully designed villas and quaint Indonesian huts.

DINE WITH A LUSCIOUS VIEW OF PADDY FIELDS

Experience Ubud at its most authentic; spectacular greenery and Ubudians working in the rice fields. Grab a table at the open sided restaurant in Abangan or Sari Organic.

MONKEY FOREST

Located in the centre of UBUD, and 15 minutes by scooter from Roam. The sacred monkey forest hosts 3 temples, said to have been constructed in 1350.

Home to over 600 Macaque monkeys, or "Balinese long tailed monkeys".

We recommend you don't carry bags or anything that the monkeys might snatch - including food.

You've be warned.
