Habitat for Humanity: Destination Design

Friday April 8
Grand Pointe Conference Center, Vienna
$35 includes light dinner

Habitat for Humanity is having their fundraising event, Destination Designs. It is incorporating beautiful donations of furniture and home items from stores all over the valley, as well as travel packages and getaways. There will be a silent and live auction, and this year the entire event is sponsored - so every dime we raise will go directly back into building homes!

Get your tickets by calling 304-422-7907, or at www.woodcountyhabitat.org. Find them on Facebook at Destination Design.

Question and Answer Session

As part of a busy day in Marietta, Timothy S. Keen, Director of the Ohio Office of Budget and Management, invites you to attend a question and answer session on Wednesday, April 6 from 4 to 5 p.m. at Washington State Community College. Director Keen will brief guests on and engage in discussion about the State of Ohio's budget and financial condition.

The informal but informative session will take place in the auditorium, room 227, of the Arts and Sciences Building on the WSCC campus. All chamber members and guests are welcome to attend. If you have any questions about the event, please email OBM Communications Director John Charlton atjohn.charlton@obm.ohio.gov.

Live Stream of the State of the State Address at WSCC

Washington State Community College will be live streaming the State of the State Address in Graham Auditorium on Wednesday, April 6.

Parking Information for State of the State Address

A Marietta first will be happening on Wednesday, April 6. Governor Kasich will be delivering the State of the State Address to the Ohio General Assembly in Marietta on the evening of Wednesday, April 6, 2016. Marietta will be bustling on Wednesday in an effort to ensure certain matters are addressed.

To accommodate the entire assembly and reduce threats, the Parking Partners Lot on Second Street will be closed all day beginning at 7 a.m. to local vehicles. Beginning at 7 a.m. and until the event concludes, Putnam Street between Second and Third Streets will be closed. Pedestrian traffic will be able to continue until approximately 4 p.m. that afternoon when that area will become restricted for security reasons and accessible by credentials/ticket only.

Also beginning at 7 a.m., Third Street will be closed between Putnam Street and Butler Street. All efforts will be made to allow bankers access to Huntington Bank that morning and afternoon. Pedestrian traffic will be able to continue until approximately 4 p.m. that afternoon when that area will become restricted for security reasons and accessible by credentials/ticket only. Detours will be in place if you happen to find yourself in those areas of town.

Catch us on the radio every Monday Morning at 8:40 a.m. on 1490 AM Radio
