Summer Summer Summer

Winter has ended! Spring has appeared! Summer 'feels' like it is here! School is out! Graduation is over! Sounds like everything is the way it should be! Even though the schedule that has 'imprisoned' us during these last 10 months is gone, it certainly doesn't mean that we have time for anything more. It is only that we choose to take on a different schedule that will be just as rigorous and time consuming and we will continue waking up in the morning as tired as we do the rest of the year!

Isn't it interesting that we all complain about our schedules and how busy we are and how we wish there were more hours in the night, but we continue to fill our plates with more and more things to do! Isn't it interesting that God worked six days and then said it was time to rest! Did God decide that he would play a trick on his creation and make our 'jobs' so demanding that we need to work seven days rather than six?

Isn't it interesting that God set down one day that was 'holy' or special and during that time we should pause from our fast paced, busy schedules and think about God and spend some time 'touching base' with God. Even our cars need to be 'filled up' each week. Why is so difficult to realize that we also need to be filled up, re-connected, reminded, with and about God? Why do we turn our back on the Creator and inform the Creator that we really do care about Him, but we just don't want to have to take time to connect?

Family time is important! Getting away time is good! A place to relax is wonderful! But parents, what do you say to your children when all those things 'omit' God? Where does God fit into this whole scheme of things?

Gail Sayers, one of the greatest running backs in the history of professional football, had a belief that he tried to live out: "The Lord is first, my friends are second, and I am third." Another way that I have heard is: "The Lord is first, my family is second, and I am third." If you think that way, does your life reveal that order of things? Is leaving God out of your Sundays putting God first? Or is God falling further down on that list for you and your family?

I realize that you have all types of reasons for living as you do. The most amazing one is when you say: "I was 'forced' to go to church when I was a child and I certainly am not going to 'force' my child to go and then when he gets older he will most likely rebel like I did!"

My parents never 'forced' me to go to church! My parents expected me to attend worship and they showed that expectation by their example. My parents raised four children and they were all participants in the life of the church. My parents set the example by their actions - there was no force involved.

Parents, what are your actions displaying? What kind of example are you living?

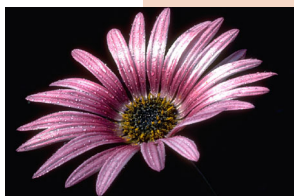

I realize that times are different. I realize that opportunities are much more available. I realize that the vast majority of society has relegated worship to 'if I am available'! Thank God that Jesus didn't make those same decisions that we often do! Thank God that His Son put his Father first, then us -- and that means you -- second! Because of that, we can anticipate a life of God's forgiveness, God's love, and God's eternity!

May your summer be blessed and may God be a part of your life each and every week!

Pastor Norm

"...we can anticipate a life of God's forgiveness, God's love, and God's eternity!"

ATTENTION WORKGROUP CHAIR PEOPLE

All workgroup assignments NEED to go through Darlene Dahl so as to avoid any miscommunication. Thank you.

I can't begin to thank all of you who helped with our two auction sales and then we asked for so many items for the four day sale you all just gave, gave, gave or worked, worked, worked. I was going to ask Pastor Norm if I could personally thank you in church but he did such a nice job one Sunday so this is my thank you from the ELCW! I especially loved hearing people say "call me anytime" or "we'll bring an extra case of water." We served a variety of food which was appreciated by those who ate. It was fun but we were tired by the 4th day! We cleared around $4000.00 on the auctions and that will go to fix the wall on the education wing, i.e.

"Wall of Jericho." I haven't got the final amount as our treasurer has been gone. Darline and Woody Claus got all the supplies for the 40 personal kits we put together for Lutheran World Relief and they delivered them to Fargo. Thank you both for doing this and to all who helped put them together and the circles who paid for them! August 16, 2014, is the date for the Maryvale Retreat in Valley City—more information will be available in church bulletins later on. So keep a look out! This was well attended last year and this is where we asked Kim Wagner to come and speak at our prayer breakfast this past May. Thank you Kay Foss for heading that and to Amanda Bell for the delicious food and Ruth Circle for decorating. It was a wonderful morning!! Pillowcase dresses are going to Africa!!!!!!!!!!!!!! A group from Sharon Lutheran church will be taking them when they go. We women have worked hard this year and looking forward to a relaxing summer, we'll still be doing the Sunday brunches the last Sunday of the summer months so we hope to see you there after worship. We'll all hopefully be rested up and fired up come fall!!! Enjoy your summer!

WOW—Worship On Wednesday

This service is a more relaxed worship time and is more like a "come as you are" time. The sermon on Wednesday will be similar to the Sunday following the Wednesday. WOW starts at 6:00 pm. Holy Communion will be served the first Wednesday of the month.

"Save Our Shingles" for Parsonage #2

The project to reshingle parsonage #2 is getting started. The quote for materials is $4063.91, labor is roughly $3120.00 and dumpster rental approximately $400.00, approximate project total $7583.91. If we do it ourselves it could save us over $3000.00. Please contact the church office if you'd be willing to volunteer for this project. Monetary donations are also appreciated. We need 5-10 volunteers for this project and hopefully this will be done in June.

SOUND BOARD

We have volunteers from the church who come and run sound for our Sunday worship services, WOW services, funerals, and weddings. But did you know that when we have a sound board operator for a wedding they get paid $50! Its an easy way to make some extra cash.

However, we'd like to add a few new volunteers to the schedule.

If you would like to volunteer your time to the church, this is definitely an easy way to do it. Its not hard at all to run sound. It may seem intimidating but it really is not.

If you're interested please call the church office to give your name and contact information.

Thank you!!

TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH COUNCIL
UNAPPROVED MINUTES
May 7, 2014

The meeting was called to order by President Alan Qual, with members Pastor Norm Anderson, Gina Kelly, Tracey Froemke, DuWayne Bott, Kristi Odegard, Jill Bergemann, Mary & Wally Kaczmarski, and treasurer Cheri Deplazes in attendance. Pastor Norm opened the meeting with devotions.

Stacey Jorgenson presented some ideas from Sheriff Benneweis to make the church more secure while her students are attending classes here. Stacey needs to have a plan in place by the start of school next fall. No action was taken now, and the ideas would be discussed at future council meetings.

MINUTES: DuWayne Bott moved, seconded by Tracey Froemke, to approve the minutes of the April 2014 council meeting. Motion carried.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Tracey Froemke moved, seconded by Kristi Odegard to move the line items "Honorariums - #1 and Honorariums - #2" in the TLC Memorial Fund to the "General Fund." Motion carried. Gina Kelly moved, seconded by Jill Bergemann to only publish numbers from the monthly financial report in the Ambassador after the report has been approved by the council. Motion carried. Wally Kaczmarski moved, seconded by Gina Kelly, to approve the treasurer's report as amended. Motion carried.

PROPERTY: Wally presented a preliminary draft of a rental agreement to the council. It will be further reviewed. He reported that he and Mary had cleaned the gutters on parsonage #1, and that they have some holes and will probably need replacing in another year or so. He presented an estimate from Riverside Building for the material and labor to shingle parsonage #2. The cost of the materials is $4,063.81, labor approximately $3,120.00, and rental of a dumpster approximately $400.00. Tracey Froemke moved, seconded by Kristi Odegard to move ahead with the project, and to approach the congregation for fundraising and ask for volunteers to do the labor. Motion carried. Jill Bergemann moved, seconded by Mary Kaczmarski to repair the compressor on the air conditioner on parsonage #2. Motion carried. Wally also reported that the oven in parsonage #2 isn't working correctly and will be contacting Fantasy to have it fixed. Mary reported that she has been able to setup a system for Wi-Fi connections that could be used in the sanctuary, mother's room, and fellowship hall using a technology known as power-line networking. The receiving unit can be checked out through Cheri and used on an "as needed" basis, and returned to her when done.

YOUTH: Kristi reported that they received $400 from the union for the mission trip. Kristi Odegard moved, seconded by Tracey Froemke to request permission to approach various groups for donations for Bible camp. Motion carried. Sunday, May 18 is senior recognition and breakfast, with 70 people coming to the breakfast. Captive Free, the group that was at Youth Quake, is coming to Lisbon on May 29. They have decided not to make rolls in the future. They will be doing fund raisers at the Pizza Corner on May 31, June 7 and June 14.

EDUCATION: Gina reported that next Sunday, Mother's Day, the Sunday school students will be putting on a program during the church service, and that it will be the last day of Sunday school. Vacation Bible School will be Sunday, August 3 through Tuesday, August 5 with a program presented at the WOW service on Wednesday, August 6. The total cost of the curriculum is $66. They are planning a follow-up meeting of the Confirmation advisory committee to see what changes, if any, they would like to implement next year. A discussion was held regarding the Bibles given out to the youth and what Bibles should be used, when they should be distributed, and who should pay for them. They will be doing some research before any decisions are made. The sound system for music for the Sunday school is no longer working, and they will bring a proposal to the next council meeting for a replacement. Kristi Odegard moved, seconded by Gina Kelly, to move Sunday school to 10:15 am next year. Motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS: Cheri sent a check for $3,000 to LSS of North Dakota, from funds already raised, as part of our pledge of $5000.

NEW BUSINESS: Food for the Poor has asked to speak to the congregation. It was discussed and decided that there were enough local needs and to tell them no.

The next council meeting date will be June 4, 2014, at 7:00 pm following the WOW service.

There being no further business to come before the Council, Jill Bergemann moved, seconded by Tracey Froemke, to adjourn the meeting with the Lord's Prayer.
