Members to hear from Texas Land Commissioner at Annual Banquet

The Chamber is pleased to announce that Jerry Patterson, Texas Land Commissioner, will be the featured speaker at the 2012 Annual Banquet. The event will be held on Tuesday, January 31, at Fireman's Training Center in Brenham. The theme of the banquet will be "Washington County: Celebrating Traditions and Service."

PATTERSON

"We are so pleased to have Jerry Patterson as our banquet speaker, because he is a true Texas leader who will inspire and motivate us in our volunteer service roles," said Cathy Boeker, outgoing Chair of the Chamber's Board of Directors.

Born in Houston in November 1946, Jerry Patterson has served as Texas Land Commissioner since 2003. He graduated from Texas A&M, Class of 1969. He received his commission in the United States Marine Corps and volunteered for duty in Vietnam in 1972 and was later designated as a Naval Flight Officer and served in Marine fighter squadrons until his retirement from the Marine Corps Reserve as a Lieutenant Colonel in 1993. Five consecutive generations of Patterson's family have served our nation in time of war.

As a State Senator in Texas for District 11 (Harris, Galveston and Brazoria Counties), Patterson's major legislative successes include passage of the historic concealed handgun law, a constitutional amendment allowing home equity lending, the state coastal management plan, and the creation of the Texas State Veterans Home Program. A tireless advocate for his fellow veterans, Patterson chaired the first Veterans Affairs Committee in the Texas Senate.

Patterson resides in Austin and has four children, twins Samantha and Cole, born in 2004, Emily and Travis. His daughter Emily is an attorney working in Kosovo for an agency funded by the U.S. State Department. His son Travis is a graduate of Texas A&M, where he was commissioned as a Marine Lieutenant. He recently returned from serving his 2nd tour of duty in Iraq as a U.S. Marine attack helicopter pilot.

Economic Development Foundation chairman William Krueger said, "We are looking forward to the banquet, because it will give us a chance to hear a great speaker and also recognize two outgoing board members for their volunteer service, David Bockhorn and Steve Haley."

Washington County Chamber board members who ended their term of service in December will also be recognized: Trey Hardy, LaVerne Krumrey, Joy Nelson and Lowell Ogle. Cathy Boeker will remain on the board as Immediate Past Chairman, and Mike Baker and Barry Brass will remain on the board to fill the unexpired terms of two directors who recently resigned from the board.

Serving as Master of Ceremonies at the banquet will be Joel Romo, and State Rep. Lois Kolkhorst will deliver a special presentation honoring the 40th anniversary of the Washington County Blue Blazers. Plus, the Blue Blazer of the Year Award will be announced.

Headline sponsors of the banquet include:

- Blue Bell Creameries
- Bluebonnet Electric
- Brenham Chrysler Jeep Dodge
- Brenham Clinic

"We are very grateful to these sponsors," said Page Michel, Chamber president, "because they enable us to host a very special event for our members and guests. There will be complimentary drinks during the social hour, a delicious meal, a compelling speaker and wonderful awards presented. It's going to be a great evening."

Another highlight of the evening will be the announcement of the 2011 Man and Woman of the Year-Lifetime Achievement award winners. Nominations are being accepted for these awards until January 13, and nomination forms are available at the Chamber office. Last year's winners were Joycine Hanath and Clarence Gerke, who will return to this banquet to do the surprise introductions of the 2011 winners.

Boost Your Visibility By Hosting

Hosting a Chamber event can be a great way to expose your company, your products and/or services, and your staff to the greater Washington County business community.

The Chamber offers two great networking events during the year, “Business After Hours” and “Wake Up, Washington County!” Dates fill up fast for these opportunities, so please give Jane Hinze, Member Services Manager, a call as soon as you read this article if you are interested.

Members who host “Business After Hours” have the event at the venue of their choice, make arrangements for refreshments and entertainment, and sponsor the invitation mailing fee of $400. This event is held monthly.

The “Wake Up” networking breakfasts are held quarterly. One host site sponsorship is available each quarter for $75. This promotion is a great value and opportunity to bring 30-50 people through your doors! Breakfast sponsors are needed to cover the cost of food and coffee. There can be up to two sponsors per event and the fee is $100 each. All sponsors receive valuable exposure on mailed invitations, in the Chamber newsletter, in emails, and at the event.

Mark your calendar now and maybe this will be your New Year’s resolution...to become a great networking partner of the Chamber. You will be surprised at the things you will learn about this community and the connections you will make when you attend Chamber events. Together we can make 2012 great.

Planning an Event? Check the Calendar

Attention: leaders of all Clubs and Organizations! The Chamber wants you to invite you, if you are planning an event in 2012, to post your information on the online “Calendar” at www.BrenhamTexas.com. This community calendar is available for everyone’s use, and it’s a great reference tool for people planning events in our busy town.

Many groups already place their events on here regularly. You can do it yourself online. When viewing the calendar you will see a link to “Submit New Event” on the lower right. It is free exposure! Use the Calendar as a tool when you’re in the planning phase to see what other events may already be scheduled on a date you are considering.

If you have any questions at any time about the online calendar, please call the Chamber office. We are here to help you!

Leadership Explores the County's History

The December session of Leadership took the group back in time in Washington County. The day was planned and facilitated by James Pharaon (LWC class of 2011). The class started their day at the Washington County Courthouse with County Clerk (and LWC Graduate) Beth Rothermel. Beth showed the class the underground room filled with hundreds of years of history, where land deeds, marriage licenses, and birth certificates date back to the 1800's.

The outdoor portion of this chilly day kicked off with a tour of Old Washington. The group watched an informative video and received a detailed tour through the old school house and historic homes to get a feel for what life was like in the 1800's. They also took in a brief visit to Old Baylor Park and experienced the huge live oak trees growing there.

The next stop was Independence. Nancy Shoup gave the group a wonderful tour of Independence Baptist Church, where Sam Houston was a member. This church is the oldest continuously operating church in Texas. The Texas Baptist Museum, housed beside the historic church, is home to hundreds of artifacts from the 1800's, such as the original 1856 church bell. Afterward, the class gathered for a refreshing lunch before their trek to "The Birthplace of Texas."

The history session continued as the leadership group traveled to the Star of the Republic Museum. After a brief video introduction, the group took a self-guided tour of this double-decker, star-shaped museum. Several interesting artifacts are available for viewing in this award-winning exhibition. The group took a rich look at the people, places, and events that shaped the character of the Texas we know today.

The final stop of the day was Washington-on-the-Brazos Historic Site. A Texas

Parks & Wildlife tour guide gave the leadership group an amazing tour of the Visitors Center. The site features interactive exhibits in the Gallery of the Republic, which present a timeline of the Texas Revolution and highlight the historic attractions located within the park.

The next Leadership session is Local Government, and is scheduled for Jan. 12.

Leadership Washington County is a program of the Washington County Chamber of Commerce aimed at educating and motivating current and future leaders. The next class will form in June/July and begin in August 2012.

"Chamber of Secrets" County Clerk Beth Rothermel shows the class an underground room at the county courthouse. The room is full with years of documents containing rich Washington County history.

"Religious Experience" The class sits inside the church, where Nancy Shoup gave a detailed history of the building and its members.

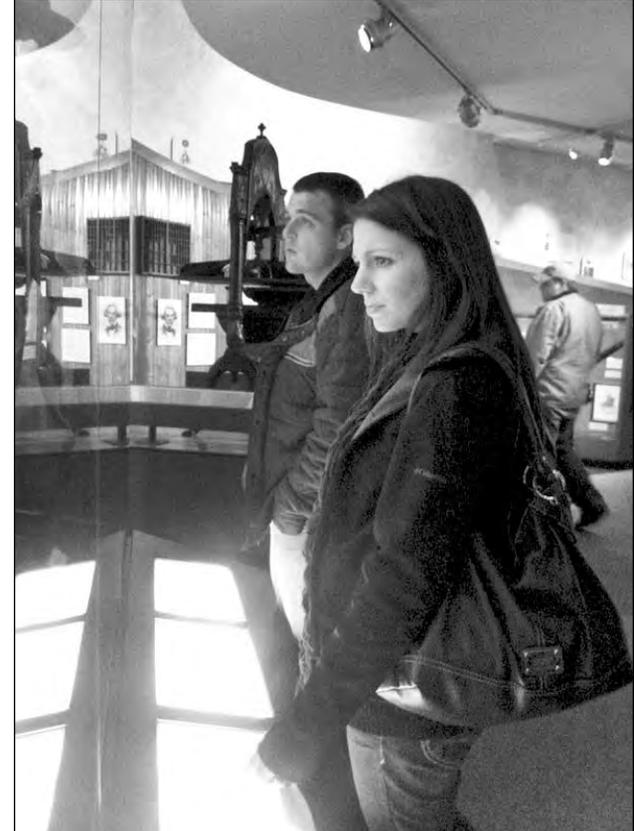

"The Back Pew" A group of LWC participants sit on a bench in Independence Baptist Church. The pew marked with a flag is where Sam Houston sat and his name is still visible where he carved it in the wood.

"Visitor's Guide" Texas Parks & Wildlife tour guide Adam Arnold gives the group a detailed indoor tour of the W.O.B. Visitor's Center.

"A Real Davy Crockett" LWC class member Kyle Kmeic tries a coonskin cap on for size at the Star of the Republic Museum. This is just one of the many hands-on activities available to museum-goers.

"Texas History" Megan McCoy and Kyle Kmeic check out some artifacts in "The First Texans" exhibit. Through 10,000 square feet of new exhibits, audio-visual presentations, and educational programs, the Museum presents the experiences of ordinary Texans and extraordinary events.

"Back in Time" Kimberly Behrens examines a painting of the signers of the Texas Declaration of Independence at the Star of the Republic Museum.

"Going Up" LWC participants make their way to the second floor of the star-shaped museum to view exhibits of the social and cultural heritage of the unique people who came together to create the Republic of Texas.

History Comes Alive at Washington-on-the-Brazos

Sample life in the mid-1800's with two weekends of events demonstrating frontier life at Barrington Living History Farm.

First comes "Butchering and Curing" on January 14-15, 2012. Butchering livestock was a necessary way of life, while pork was preserved by drying, salting and smoking. Join the staff at Barrington and see the different varieties of curing and ways to preserve food to eat later. Learn the fundamentals of this simple, old fashioned way of life. On Saturday, two farm-raised Ossabaw Island hogs will be butchered as it would have been done in the 1850s. On Sunday, the curing process begins. These steps will not be repeated. To see the entire process, don't miss either day.

On the weekend of January 28-29, 2012, learn how to "Make every stitch count." While today we can go to the store and buy ready-made clothing, men and women of the early frontier had to know, by necessity, how to sew and create handmade clothing, linens and even decorations. There will be many hands-on opportunities to observe and learn these various sewing and creating skills.

Also, on Saturday, January 28, learn about the history and symbolism of the many flags that have flown in Texas, with guest speaker and former TSSAR president Tom Green. Try your hand at putting a stitch into a re-creation of an early Texas flag.

For details and fees for these events, call (936) 878-2214 ext. 246, or visit www.BirthplaceOfTexas.com.

Don't miss your chance to see how important the tiny sewing needle was to our past at the "Make Every Stitch Count" event held at Barrington Living History Farm in Washington-on-the-Brazos State Historic Site.

"Uptown Swirl" in Downtown Brenham

Saturday, January 14, 2012, from 2 p.m.-7 p.m., is just the time to shake the after-holidays blues. Kick off the New Year with an afternoon and evening of wine tasting in quaint stores and other locations around Brenham's downtown district.

With the purchase of a beautifully boxed, one-of-a-kind keepsake wine glass, visitors can collect tickets to sample 20 wines, varieties both local and from around the world. Wine glasses may be purchased in advance online at www.BrenhamUptownSwirl.com, at several locations in downtown Brenham or on the day of the event at the downtown Ticket Booth. A map of tasting locations will also be provided.

Funds generated from this event will be utilized for improvements to the downtown historic district. For more information, call 979-337-7384 or visit www.BrenhamUptownSwirl.com.

Enjoying the fresh morning air on the back deck of Sophie's B & B are Margaret Dominy, Ken Lawrence, Carol Montgomery and Charlotte Von Rosenberg.

Wonny Rengersen (back to camera), general manager of The Inn at Dos Brisas, describes the elegant facility to B&B owners Carol Montgomery, Charlotte Von Rosenberg, Susan Lopez, Richard and Dorothy Goodlett, Patsy Klusmann and Diane Hunter.

The touring group's last stop is Lady Kassie's Rose Cottage, a charming, secluded hideaway on the grounds of Lillian Farms Country Estate. This is the first of several isolated cottages planned for the "enchanted forest" area.

Everything Weddings Expo

Brides and their families can participate in a bridal show that caters to the bride-to-be who is looking for a great destination wedding venue and top-quality vendors in one location - basically everything a bride needs to make her day unforgettable.

Door prizes and a fashion show at 2 p.m. are highlights of the show. In addition, brides can roll up their sleeves and get ready to cake dive for prizes valued at $300 or more. Brides must be present at 3:15 p.m. for the drawing to participate in the dive. Hourly door prizes will also be drawn.

Featured vendors include Cake Junkie, Spilada Jewelry, Special Occasions fashions, floral presentations by Moosefeathers, hair styles by Mimosa and photography by The K Gallery.

Bed & Breakfast FAM Tour

Sixteen adventuresome bed & breakfast owners recently gathered on a recent misty, cool morning for a familiarization tour of three local lodging properties.

This type of tour, held on a quarterly basis, included the warm, simple comfort of the rural country home that Richard Goodlett grew up in and named Sophie's Bed & Breakfast for his mother. The next two stops were the sparkling new haciendas just completed on the grounds of The Inn at Dos Brisas and the Thomas Kincaid ambiance of Lady Kassie's Rose Cottage on the grounds of Lillian Farms Country Estate.

Three such diverse settings contrasted quite well with each other, and the tour concluded with lunch at Lillian Farms followed by a short business meeting. The group shared their various experiences and CVB staff members updated everyone about their tourism-related activities. The next B&B Owners meeting is scheduled for March 7, 2012.

Get Noticed...

The ChamberWorks newsletter is published inside The Banner-Press on the first Thursday of the month. Chamber members have the opportunity to advertise in this newsletter. Rates start at only $25 per month.

If you are looking for a new opportunity to advertise, just give Jane Hinze, Member Services Manager, a call at the Chamber: (979) 836-3695.

Another great way to promote your organization is through targeted emails. The Chamber will forward your "e-message" to all members, as long as it meets certain criteria. For non-profits, it should not have a strong-sell for sponsorships or donations. The message should be newsworthy, typically about an upcoming event. For regular businesses, it should also be about upcoming special events, as long as there is no purchase required for the reader to experience the event.

E-messages are sent a maximum of once per quarter per member during each calendar year.

Hot Deals Online!

Another great tool is the "Hot Deals" feature on the Chamber website. These are designed to promote special offers provided by member businesses and organizations.

The Hot Deal must promote something that is not available on a year-round basis, such as a sale or discount price on a product or service, an open house event, a free tour, free refreshments, etc.

The offer may only be promoted for a limited time. Therefore, an expiration date must be included on the Hot Deal. The maximum length of time for a Hot Deal is 3 months (12 weeks). Call if we can help you set up a Hot Deal!

Did You Know?

That the Chamber provides hundreds of "Relocation Info" packages every year to individuals and businesses who are considering moving to this community. As a member, you are eligible to include your promotional material and reach this targeted audience for a nominal annual fee ($75). Contact the Chamber office to be included.

Brenham native and owner Sissi Wellmann creates one-of-a-kind printed items that are personable and perfect for any special gift or occasion.

The Birth of Swell Printing: Sissi says that she has always loved creating things with paper. As a small child, she enjoyed drawing, doodling and creating fun things for others. She began making simple note cards and stationery for herself and friends and later invitations and more.

View samples of her designs at www.swellprinting.com. She offers Personal and Commercial printed items including business cards and special one-of-a-kind invitations of all occasions — Weddings, Graduation, Birthday, Anniversary, Baptism, Confirmation, etc.
