Year End Analysis

See below for county wide annual totals and summary details for each year since 2009 when the CDA began this service. These details are also broken down for selected cities with the most foreclosures. HousingLink typically puts out an annual report in Mid-February that is not out yet.

Annual and Quarterly Data Summary

- Since 2010 the total number of foreclosures has steadily declined each year, although the rate of decline has slowed since 2014. The number of annual foreclosures has declined by 1,022, or 80%, since the height of the foreclosure crisis in 2010 from 1,281 to 259 in 2016.
- On a quarterly basis, the number of foreclosures started to decline pretty consistently in late 2010 until early 2014 when the number plateaued for just over a year. Since early 2015 the quarterly totals have been lower than the 2014 level, but to varying degrees. The overall trend in 2016 appears to be additional declines.

- Pre-foreclosure notices quarterly totals have largely followed the foreclosure trends with steady declines since 2010 but at a lesser rate in more recent years.

Detailed City Summary

- All cities with ten or more foreclosures experienced significant declines from 2015 to 2016, except Forest Lake which saw an increase of six sales. Since 2009, these cities have seen drops in total foreclosures of 71% to 84%.
- The cities with the six highest annual totals, Woodbury, Cottage Grove, Oakdale, Hugo, Forest Lake, and Stillwater, make up most (78%) of the county wide foreclosure total.
- The Average and Median Sale amounts are significantly lower than in past years, which leads to correspondingly lower Original Principal and Amount Claimed Due on Mortgage totals.
- The number of units determined to be vacant when the foreclosure notice was served on the property by the sheriff is 36.54% for 2016 which is very close to the 2015 rate of 37.12%. This rate has generally risen since 2011.
- Similar to prior years, the vast majority of foreclosures are Residential Class properties that are Homesteaded.
