Rexx Anthony Samuell is a yoga teacher and trainer. He is an IYPT-200-hour level and is a certified personal trainer. Rexx studied for yoga while studying theater and dance at university. Rexx started practicing Ashtanga Yoga in 2002, completing Primary Series in 2003 and Intermediate Series in 2005. Since 2006, Rexx's current practice includes Advanced A and B and the Krama. Rexx is known for the clarity of instruction, his attention to an individual's needs, and his emphasis on breathwork through diaphragm practice. His classes are organized based upon the needs of the students and draw heavily from an understanding of the principles of movement and progression. Through concentration on alignment within the postures, the breathing and directed gaze, the practice of yoga can be gateway to greater awareness which then seeps into other areas of one's life.
